

Pete Scott Saxophone, Clarinet & Piano Tuition

Hello!

My name is Pete and I am a new member of the Mrs. Ethelston's peripatetic team this term. I offer lessons on saxophone (I play alto, but learning tenor or soprano is an option too), clarinet, and I am also assisting Jess in covering piano lessons whilst Ellie Walker is on maternity leave.

I graduated with a degree in BA Music from the University of Southampton in 2015, and have 3 years' experience in teaching primary and secondary school levels (and beyond!). I strive for my sessions to be fun and intuitive, and always try to adapt my approach to meet the student's own desires and objectives.

I can:

- ✓ take your child through the grades, via a 'classical', notation-orientated route
- ✓ teach them how to learn by ear, improvise, and compose their own tunes and pieces
- ✓ equip them for learning the songs they want to learn, and play in a variety of styles: eg. classical, jazz, blues, folk, rock, pop, etc.

I welcome students of any level – from someone who has never touched a musical instrument before right up to diploma level..... but ability has no importance – only a keenness to learn!

I offer 20 or 30 minute lessons, either one-on-one, or in groups of two or three (sax and clarinet only). Please do get in contact for pricings or with any other queries!

Many thanks for your interest and I look forward to hearing from you!

Pete
